

ACT THREEINT. ZACK & RICK'S APARTMENT

ZACK AND RICK, ON THE COUCH.

(RICK)

Listen to me: crazy chicks draw crazy people. You don't need to get involved in that. It's been less than 48 hours and she's already a full-time job.

ZACK

I know.

(RICK)

It's not going to get better. Most people show you their best side in the beginning. The way she snapped at you -- if this is her best side, what in the hell is down the road?

ZACK

I don't know.

(RICK)

Look, I've got nothing against her, and it's cool she's a nurse-type thing because they're always good in bed, but I do have a problem with you giving up your freedom. Because that trip? That hell? That is going to be the rest of your life.

Rick

The Two of Us

ZACK

You're right.

(RICK )

She just has too many issues. She left the dog with that guy -- that means they're still connected.

ZACK

I know.

(RICK )

Look at you. You can't sleep. You're not eating. You're a mess. You can't go on like this.

ZACK

You're right. I'm going to take care of it today.

(RICK )

Hey, I know it's hard, but believe me, you're doing the right thing.

CUT TO:

INT. HANNAH & BONNIE'S APARTMENT

HANNAH AND BONNIE ARE IN THE KITCHEN.

BONNIE

Look, at least you got Brad to keep Ally. You saved her from the pound.

HANNAH

I know that. But I probably lost Zack in the process.