

JUDY SIDES #3

INT. OFFICE - DAY

A MAN SITS AT A DESK. JUDY ENTERS.

JUDY

Hi, I'm here for the three o'clock admissions interview.

MAN

(CHECKING CALENDAR) Oh, I had a Doug Finkel down for three.

JUDY

I'm Doug's fiance Judy. Doug's running a little late, but we can just get started without him. (CLEARS THROAT, REFERS TO INDEX CARDS) There are three reasons why Loyola dental school needs
Doug Finkel--

MAN

I'm sorry, why don't we just wait for him to get here.

JUDY

Okay, Doug's not actually going to be coming.

MAN

What?

JUDY

He doesn't know I'm here.

JUDY (CONT'D)

Or that he applied to dental school.
But that doesn't change the fact that (BACK TO INDEX CARDS) Doug Finkel has always had a special relationship with teeth--

MAN

Okay, I don't know what's happening here. He doesn't know he applied to dental school?

JUDY

Look, mister. Doug doesn't know what he wants. But I do. And I really think this is the perfect fit. I know Doug's got his limits -- I'm not saying he should be like a real doctor, no offense, but this is something he could do!

MAN

I just don't think we can admit a student who has no interest in going and hasn't actually applied.

JUDY

Well I think that's kind of an unreasonable position.

MAN

It's not going to work.

JUDY

Okay, fine.

JUDY GATHERS HER THINGS AND GET UP TO LEAVE.

That's what you say. But I say when someone wants something this bad, you know, for someone else, nothing is going to stand in the way of that person's dreams. You know, for the other person. Good day.

SHE EXITS.
