12 INT. DORM ROOM - DAY

Briscoe and Green in a dorm room with MAXINE WALDEN, twenty-one, seemingly waif-like and ethereal but with great inner conviction and no small amount of sexual allure however slowly it comes to the surface--

GREEN

Was the day of the demonstration the last time you were at the lab?

MAXINE

Yes.

GREEN

It was just a passing fancy?

MAXINE

I'm involved in various actions related to animal rights. That was the last time I was at that particular location.

BRISCOE

How come you didn't get arrested that day at the lab?

MAXINE

Because I was let go.

GREEN

The question is why were you let go.

MAXINE

I think I was late for a doctor's appointment and the security guard took pity on me.

BRISCOE

(noticing a stun gun under the bed)

You expecting intruders?

MAXINE

No.

BRISCOE

(retrieving stun gun)

Then what are you doing with a stun gun?

MAXINE

There were some incidents with women being attacked on their way back to the dorm. I got it for that.

GREEN

Where'd you get it from?

MAXINE

A friend of mine got it for me and I'm not going to tell you who that friend is because I don't want to get him in trouble.

BRISCOE

They're illegal in New York City. We're going to have to take it away from you.

MAXINE

(indifferent)

Take it.

BRISCOE

We're going to have to check with the DA's office - it's possible there'll be consequences.

MAXINE

(unimpressed)

Uh huh.

GREEN

The more cooperative you are the more likely it is they'll let it go.

MAXINE

I'll take my chances.

ACT TWO

FADE IN

16 EXT. DORM - MORNING

Briscoe and Green stand at their car with Maxine--

MAXINE

Whoever did it do you actually think they meant to kill anyone?

GREEN

Letting diseased monkeys out of their cages might've been viewed as a little risky.

MAXINE

They're diseased because they were injected with a virus.

BRISCOE

Where can we find George?

MAXINE

I have no idea.

GREEN

You know that interfering with a criminal investigation is a felony.

MAXINE

I'm not interfering with anything.

GREEN

If you're helping him you're interfering.

MAXINE

Are you guys trying to intimidate me? 'Cause if you are it's not working.

BRISCOE

When's the last time you saw George?

MAXINE

I don't know. Last week sometime.

GREEN

Are you involved with him romantically?

MAXINE

That's none of your business. Now if you'll excuse me - I'm late for class.

GREEN

People start getting bitten by these monkeys your friend's gonna jump to the head of the FBI's most wanted list.

MAXINE

I don't know what friend you're talking about but anyone who cared enough about these animals to rescue them would make sure they weren't running loose. They'd make sure they were safe.

BRISCOE

We'll pass your assurance along to the people in Washington.

17 INT. VAN BUREN OFFICE - DAY

Briscoe and Green report to Van Buren--

GREEN

He's not showing up for work, his mother has no idea where he is. At least that's what she says.

BRISCOE

Maxine's the key. We sit on her he'll show up.

VAN BUREN

I'll talk to the DA about a wire tap.

GREEN

We're thinking he might've tried to place the monkeys in a refuge of some kind.

VAN BUREN

Why don't you check the Tri-State area for complaints related to non-domestic animals. That might at least tell us who'd be willing to take them.
